Applications Filed For 54 Dams In Co.

Land Owners Who Wish to Secure Dams Are Urged to File Applications at Once

Application for 54 dams in Randall county were officially filed Friday afternoon by S. H. Condron with the WPA office in Amarillo. Mr. Condron is chairman of the Randall County Planning Board and spent considerable time last week in completing the applications and making maps for the various projects.

A few more applications were made this week at the office of County Agent W. H. Upchurch. Application blanks are available at this office, and Mr. Upchurch will assist land owners in making the applications. The County Planning Board will approve the applications after they are filed and the necessary papers completed on the projects.

While no more definite information has been received on the projects, it is believed that work will be started on some of the dams within two months.

District WPA Supervisor A. A. Meredith states that Randall county is among the first to get applications into his office. As soon as details have been worked out regarding the construction of the dams, engineers are expected to be put to work in the various counties.

Nothing more definite has been received regarding the proposed Buffalo Dam. Representatives of the land purchasing division of Resettlement have been at work here this week getting information regarding appraisal of the land values. Several land owners have been interviewed, but not nearly all of them have been seen by the men working up this information.

Homecoming W. T. Exes Is Planned For October 23

Entertainment Features Are Being Planned To Make This Big Event of the Year

Little Johnny went home from school and told his mother that teacher "sure was pretty."

And now Johnny's teacher is going to be sent to West Texas State October 22 to represent her county in the contest for queen of the annual homecoming, October 23. Selection of the queen will take place at a carnival-program at Cousins Hall, a girls' dormitory, on the eve of homecoming.

A faculty committee on alumni affairs, headed by Miss Anna I. Hibbets, is cooperating with an exstudent committee named by Supt. Lee Gilmore of Wheeler, alumni president, in planning the most elaborate homecoming festival the college has ever known. Mrs. Tommie Montfort is chairman of the alumni committee.

Cousins hall will be gaily decorated for the grand "mixer" to which students, ex-students, and the public will be invited. Admission will be free. The dining room will become a cabaret, or night club, with tables, kitchen service, a floor show, and dancing. The main reception hall will feature the fine arts, including music by a college orchestra, solos and group numbers, and an exhibit of art done by ex-students. The ball room will become a typical western rendezvous, with oldtime fiddling and square dancing. A program by student and visiting talent will be heard. The lounge of the reception hall, named "Peacock Alley" for the occasion will become a promenade between the shows. Troubadors will wander from room to room, and there will be uniformed guides and ushers. It will be an informal occasion. The audiences will move about as they wish.

Cemetery Ass'n Announces Change In The Workmen

Announcement is made by the Cemetery Association that Cecil Bosley was forced to give up the general work as care-taker at Dreamland Cemetery because of ill health. However, Mr. Bosley would like to continue doing work on the premises of the individual lot owners. All who are interested in having their lots at the Cemetery cared for during the fall and winter are asked to get in touch with Mr. Bosley at once and make arrangements with him.

The general work of care-taker at the Cemetery has been turned over to H. T. Shelnutt by the Association.

Jasper Gipson Is Removed to Veterans' U. S. Hospital

Jasper Gipson was removed Sunday from the Neblett Hospital to the Veterans' Hospiatl in Albuquerque where he will receive treatment. He was the only surviving person of a party of five riding in an automobile last week which was hit by a truck. Four persons were killed in the crash.

Gipson was driving the car and stated to relatives that he did not see the truck, and did not know what happened.

It was believed that he will not lose his right eye, but he sustained severe head injuries from which he is not likely to recover for several months.

Bob King, driver of the truck, has not been found by the officers. Two charges have been filed against him.

Many Horses Are Lost As Result of Sleeping Sickness

Encephalomyelitis, commonly known as sleeping sickness, has killed many horses in this section during the past two weeks. No definite check has been made in Randall county as to the total loss, but the number will probably be larger than is generally expected.

The disease is being studied by government veterinarians, but so far little has been learned regarding it. The disease has increased rapidly over the nation during the past few years, but it has killed many more horses than usual this fall.

It has definitely been determined that the disease is carried by some kind of insect. Since flies are much more abundant this fall than usual, it is suspected that the flies have something to do with the disease. It is definitely determined that the disease is not transmitted by the affected animal directly to other animals, excepting through the agency of some insect.

The government is working on the case as rapidly as possible, but since the disease is operating over such a wide area nothing definite has been determined.

The disease is seasonable and its operation, coming in the fall, and disappearing after the first heavy frost or freeze.

Anthrax, which has killed a number of cattle in this section, seems to be under control due to the fact that most of the herds have been vaccinated during the past two weeks.

Widening Hiway No 9 Is Nearly Through Canyon

Street Work Will Be Finished During the Coming Week; Bridge Half Complete

Work will be completed early next week on the widening of Highway No. 9 through Canyon from the viaduct to the Eighth Avenue.

Practically all of the work north of Fifth Avenue was completed Tuesday by Engineer E. H. Gohmert and his crew of workmen.

The east side of the widened bridge over the Palo Duro creek north of Canyon was opened to traffic Saturday. It will require about two weeks' time to complete the work on the west section of the bridge.

Mr. Gohmert states that no information has been received here as to whether it will be possible to continue the widening program on the entire highway between Canyon and Amarillo. This work has been approved by the State Highway Commission, but whether it will be done at the present time is not certain at the district office in Amarillo.

The widening of the highway through Canyon has made a great improvement, and adds much to the safety of traffic on this highway.

Capt. Billy Sink To Put on Auto and Flying Stunts

Captain Billy Sink will put on a series of stunts Sunday afternoon at the Myers place north of Canyon.

Captain Sink is bringing his troop of stunt auto drivers and aviators. He has performed in all of the big cities of the nation where his shows have been highly praised.

Capt. Sink holds the world's record of 70 feet for the broad jump jump in a car. Sunday afternoon he will crash an open car through an inch wall which is on fire, will jump his car, and crash through a sheet of glass.

In addition to plane stunts, passengers will be taken up.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Foster are in Dallas on a vacation trip.

Fifty Farmers Hear A&M Expert Discuss Feeds Here Tuesday

E. R. Eudaly of A. & M. Extension Service spoke to the Randall County Dairymen's Association Tuesday evening on the subject of trench silos. Mr. Eudaly spoke interestingly to over fifty farmers who are interested in this method of saving and storing feed. He stressed the value of saving all of the feed crop and pointed out the many advantages of storing feed under ground rather than by the usual method of dry stacking. An acre of grain sorghum feed, according to Eudaly, stored in the silo is worth two acres cut and stored in the usual manner. He described the successful use of many types and sizes of trench silos being used in different sections of the country. After Mr. Eudaly's talk he spent about an hour answering questions and conducting a round table discussion in which most of the farmers present participated.

In the regular business meeting which followed the silo program, Jack Wyatt and Ted Ratcliff of the Amarillo City Health department, discussed with the dairymen plans for the observance of National Milk Week in November. The Randall County Dairymen's Association voted to participate in the advertising campaign designed to increase the consumption of grade A milk.

"The best things in life are free!"

And so is The Canyon News' fascinating and different Cooking School that is just around the corner, opening October 13 at 9:30 a. m. in the Olympic Theater. Last-minute plans are being completed, even as this paper goes to press.

No opening bells will be needed for the eagerly-awaited, three-day school, brimming with novelty, romance and practical appeal, for advanced indications point to a capacity convention of homemakers.

Men have their annual conventions where they listen to lectures from specialists, experts who have devoted years to studying and experimenting along constructive lines. There the crowds of business men get a fresh viewpoint on their job, new ideas and enthusiasm to carry back to work.

Now comes this practical rally of homemakers to contribute fresh perspective for the "same old job," the monotonous day-in-and-day-out job, yet the most important business in the world.

The feminine convention delegates may not pound on glasses and sing pep songs, but they will get up to the minute news on every phase of household lore, and they will hear from specialists in their own field, who will direct an inventory of simplified methods, routine, products and latest equipment, pointing the easy road to smooth home management.

Clarendon Editor Highly Praises "The Bride Wakes Up"

Sam M. Braswell, publisher of the Clarendon News, reported to the Canyon News yesterday that the Cooking School film, "The Bride Wakes Up" is one of the finest features that has ever been brought to Clarendon. The show was sponsored by the Clarendon News this week. It was shown the first day to a packed house filled with women and men of Donley county.

"The women expressed a preference to this type of Cooking School rather than the old personal type," stated Mr. Braswell. "Scores of women state that they will see the film two or three times while it is in Clarendon this week," stated the Clarendon publisher.

This film is being brought to Canyon next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday by The Canyon News. It was brought only after close investigation as being a feature well worth while, but The News is highly pleased to have the opinion of Mr. Braswell, who is so well known by Canyon people. His mother, Mrs. J. H. Braswell, has been a distinguished citizen of Canyon for several years.

Rotary Club Hears Discussion of Utilities in Community

J. B. Morrisset discussed the place of public utilities in the community at the weekly luncheon of the Rotary Club Tuesday.

Three classes of people are vitally interested in the utilities, stated Mr. Morrisset: the owners of the business; the public which was being served; and the employees of the utilities.

The owners of the business are represented by not only the stockholders, but likewise the bondholders. They are entitled to a fair return on their investment.

The public is entitled to good service at a fair rate.

There are 266,500 employees of utilities in the nation. They are not only responsible to the owners for the protection of their investment, but are likewise responsible to the public in giving efficient service at all times. Each employee has a responsibility in the community where he serves in taking an active part in the affairs of the community.

There are 26,028,050 customers of public utilities in the nation. The national rate for kwh in the nation is 4.74c. The average in Canyon is lower than this national average. Rates have been reduced many times in recent years so that the rates of 1936 were 28.7% less than in 1924. At the same time the general scale of living expenses has increased 67%.

So far as the future is concerned, Mr. Morrisset believes that many electrical conveniences will be added. Television is not far off.

Taxes of the utilities have been increased very rapidly in recent years. Today 14% of the income of utilities is taken by taxes.

According to the speaker, the utilities are very active in doing everything possible in each and every community to make conditions better.

Rev. Charles Wilson was introduced by Irby Carruth as a new member of the club.

Visitors present were: N. S. Griggs, Frank Storm, Roy White, Dave Mead, George Autry, all of Amarillo; Art Hawks of Canyon.

PANHANDLE MEMBER PRESS ASSOCIATION

The people of this nation are becoming weary over the turmoil that has been raised because Justice Hugo Black was at one time a member of the Klan. A few sensational seekers have kept the question alive. If mere membership in the Klan is sufficient to bar men from public office, then a lot of good men who are now in public office must be removed. Fortunately there is no provision under American law to reject a public office holder because of his membership in an organization. If Mr. Justice Black could be proven as being unworthy for his high office because of his expressed opinions, or because of his actions as a senator or as a lawyer, then he should never have been appointed by the President and confirmed by the Senate. His Qualifications have never been questioned; his honesty and his sincerety are not doubted. Then why all this rabble because of the membership in the Klan, which he retained only for a short time? All fair-minded American citizens will accept the statement of Justice Black in regard to his Klan affiliation. The enemies of President Roosevelt could hardly be expected to believe any sort of a statement.

The American Bar Association had a great time last week condemning President Roosevelt. They had almost as great a time as did the Liberty League when Al Smith made his famous speech and started his well known walk. Matter of fact, the Liberty League and the Bar Association are so nearly akin that it would be hard to unscramble the two organizations. One thing is sure and certain—the more this gang of corporation lawyers cuss the President, the stronger he will be with the people of this nation, whom he is trying to aid. The lawyers should not take themselves so seriously. If they would stop and reflect once in awhile that even the great law profession has its inferior members who are a long way from being a credit to the profession, the sooner the profession could clear up the unfit. With a majority of legislators in every state being lawyers, and a majority of congressmen becoming lawyers, it is not logic for the law profession to throw brickbats at the heads of the executives, either in state or nation. The law makers largely from the law profession, are the sinners if there are defects in this American government. The members of the American Bar Association, while very successful men, are drawn largely from the corporation lawyers who cannot see eye for eye with the man of the street who has not lost faith with the President and his demand for social and economic security of the under-privileged class.

It is indeed unfortunate that some folks will allow their prejudices to so warp their powers of reasoning that they will openly oppose movements which are sponsored not only for their own good, but likewise for the good of every person within a prescribed territory. Those who are frothing at the mouth because the government seeks to conquor the dust bowl are certainly not friends of those who suffered at the hands of the continued drouth of this section. The only practical solution of the drouth problem is to empound the water which falls within the drouth territory. The results are two fold: Not only will the drouth be conquored, but the ravages of floods in other sections will be lessened. No more practical solution has been proposed. Any sensible man must admit that vigorous steps must be taken to avert a great tragedy if the drouth continues much longer. Those who oppose the government's aid in this matter, believe that they do, so as a mâtter of principle. The fact is that they have principle mixed up with prejudice, and some of them would rather see their neighbors blown away by the dust storms rather than admit that President Roosevelt and Congressman Marvin Jones knew more about the needs of this country than they do.

Authorities of tax matters have informed Governor Allred that not 50% of the delinquint taxes due in Texas are collectable. The estimate is probably quite accurate. Much of the delinquency is on vacant property and upon personal renditions. Whether collectable or not, the state would do the wise thing to make some effort to collect up all delinquent taxes, and clear the record. There is no use for the state to kid itself by maintaining that it has $15,000,000 or more due in delinquent taxes, when as a matter of fact not half this amount will ever be realized.

Every woman in Randall county should attend the Motion Picture Cooking School being sponsored by The News next week. This is the first time that such an event has ever been staged in Canyon. The feature is a new one, having been completed in Hollywood this spring and was offered for the first time to the newspapers of the nation for fall showing. The picture is educational and interesting. Every woman who sees "The Bride Wakes Up" will profit by the time spent in seeing this new feature, according to those who have seen the feature.

This is fire prevention week in Texas. Statistics show that a large majority of fires in the nation could have been prevented had a little precaution been taken. It is very often some slight insignificant defect around the home that causes fires. The cause could be removed with no expense, yet it is allowed to continue because no one takes the time or trouble to make an inspection. Canyon has enjoyed a very light fire loss in recent years. A careful inspection of every house in town might prevent many costly fires during the winter months.

Most great men and women were born in the country, but migrated to the city to do their work. A noteable exception was Ed Howe, father of Old Tack of the Amarillo Globe-News. The elder Howe made his reputation in a small town and preferred to live there the balance of his life. After all, old friends and associates are the only ones who really care. Ed Howe liked those who liked him before he achieved a national reputation.

Before many weeks the postoffice department will distribute blanks for the purpose of taking a census of the unemployed in the nation. A lot of people have been clamoring for such a census, but as the time comes nearer to distribute the information card, the more it is realized what little value the census will be, considering just how hard it will be to secure the accurate information.

Swat the speeders! The city officials have been warning speeders for a long while, as there is no disposition to wish to fine any person unless it becomes absolutely necessary. Before some innocent people are killed in Canyon, steps should be taken to check the mad drivers going up and down the streets. Citizens can greatly aid by reporting offenses to the officers.

If the Chinese could get hold of of a dozen good bomber planes and pay a visit to Japan, the war might be considerably changed. So long as the Japs are on Chinese territory it is an unofficial war. But if the Chinese invaded Japan it would become official.

If you haven't found a sure cure for everything in this world, you are certainly a back number.

Most of the problems of the nation would be solved overnight if the more fortunate were really interested in the welfare and improvement of the less fortunate.

CANYON HARDWARE COMPANY

Your Washington and Mine

By James E. Pope

Washington, Oct. 4.—Herbert Hoover—White House tenant at the turn of the decade, and who, as the late depression's goat, became the Republican also ran in 1932—urges a mid-term convention for his party. Whether or not this proposedly genial folkmoot will unfold itself as a mild game of crossruff, or as a political poker game with joker and deuces running wild and the sky for limit, is too much to say right off. But a fairly safe prognosis is that they will prog about and, in the wind-up, bring home some new and shiny cuss-words with which that small but loud group of subsidized columnists and yours-for-the-highest-bid gentlemen of the press may smear the New Deal.

Then former Governor Landon of 1936 and Kansas fame—another likewise ran—publicly challenges President Roosevelt to submit his court reorganization plan to the people and, to quote Mr. Landon, "take a licking."

This country is fortunate in having a strong minority party ever in the offing. Whether the Republicans are in power, or the Democrats, the threat of a strong opposing element acts as a wholesale check and balance, and serves to help make this America of ours what it is—a land too dangerously democratic to afford even a safe recuperating resort or picnic ground for any walking delegate from Hitler, Stalin or Mussolini!

But what Mr. Hoover and Mr. Landon should by this time know is that the public's pet anathema is the ill-betiding croak, and his song of evil bodement. They should encourage the writer-boys to delouse and fumigate their scriptoriums. The off-color newspaper battle against President Roosevelt's court plan, now being geared into and dished up with tainted editorial chowder anent the Black-Klan episode, has tended to sicken the people against meaningless issues in general, and headline hunters in particular.

There are good Democrats and good Republicans who do not support Mr. Roosevelt's wage-hour control plan, nor his court reform proposal. The South may not be so well pleased with extra-legal shortcuts, and they may not be convinced that his nine cent cotton loan compromise is everything it should be. However, the country is not ready to come down with that miasmatic political milk sickness now so prevalent in the ranks of the hagriding partisan hellkites and forgetive vultures of the press.

There may be some who doubt the President's sincerity of purpose, but they are surprisingly few in number and there are many who disagree with him on one or several of his pet projects. But they do not, by this token, join up with that shouting varletry of indevout political chameleons who, with maleficent iconoclasm geared to harassment and harangue, seek to discredit everything bearing the Roosevelt indicia.

One needs must travel but a few short miles from this Bagdad-on-the-Potomac to find that the people of the grass-roots are not so much concerned with abstract issues, such as budget balancing, judiciary reforms, national debt and foreign isms, as they are with concrete problems—like the continuation of the golden flow of Federal relief, made-work programs, jobs, and Governmental projects involving expenditures from which they may profit. The people, in their exalted and exuberant eagerness to share in more money from Washington, are no longer as mindful of party lines and partisan squabbles as they were in the good old days before Governmental paternalism. To them a paternalistic Washington means food, drink and raiment. What else is there of so great moment?

President Roosevelt, erroneously held by some as their personal economic deliverer, savior and utilitarian, could, in their imaginations, step out from the pages of mythology. The story of King Midas of Phrygia, for example, at whose touch everything turned to gold, suggests a fitting role. Paralleling Midas in this fanciful drama, let us dream of the great Mississippi and all its tributaries as one mighty Pactolus stretching across the dust bowl and flowing through our grain lands and cotton fields, in which Mr. Roosevelt, in his Phrygian role, may bathe, causing the sands to hereafter run with gold!

Young Jimmy Adamick Looms as Definite Threat to Joe Louis' Heavyweight Title

BY IRVING DIX

SOME of the boys are saying after a hasty but good look around, that Mr. Joseph Louis Barrow of Detroit can and will hold onto his world heavyweight boxing crown for quite some spell.

And furthermore, they add he'll accomplish that little trick without any great difficulty.

Mr. Barrow, disregarding the fact that he failed to impress anyone with his successful defense of the title against Tommy Farr, hasn't much to fear from the current crop of heavyweight contenders—with two exceptions.

The exceptions are Max Schmeling, who is an immediate menace, and the other is young Jimmy Adamick, who should be the threateningest man in the world in another year or two.

Schmeling, were he to fight the Brown Bomber right now would be an even choice to win—perhaps repeat the kayo he scored over Joe in June, 1936. But Max, if he's stalled off long enough, will grow sufficiently old and feeble to make him an easy mark for the champion.

But Adamick, so they say, is a different story.

* * *

JUST 22 years old, this young heavyweight from Midland, Mich., has an imposing record of 37 knockouts in 44 professional bouts.

A 198-pound bundle of two-fisted dynamite, Adamick can hit hard enough to kayo any heavyweight in the business. The only thing against him is his comparative inexperience and the fact that he isn't quite as ring-wise as he should be, to climb into the circle with Louis, Schmeling, or even Farr, for that matter.

Jack Kearns, one-time manager of Jack Dempsey, and now a promoter in Detroit, has signed a contract for Adamick's services for a series of fights. Kearns has a good thing in the nice-looking Slavonian farm boy who can lay 'em horizontal with a single clout.

Kearns is smart. He won't let Adamick be brought along too fast. Jimmy met Slapsie Maxie Rosenbloom, former king of the light-heavies, in Detroit a short while ago, and lost the decision only because of his inexperience.

A year from now Adamick probably will be able to beat two men like Maxie in the same ring.

* * *

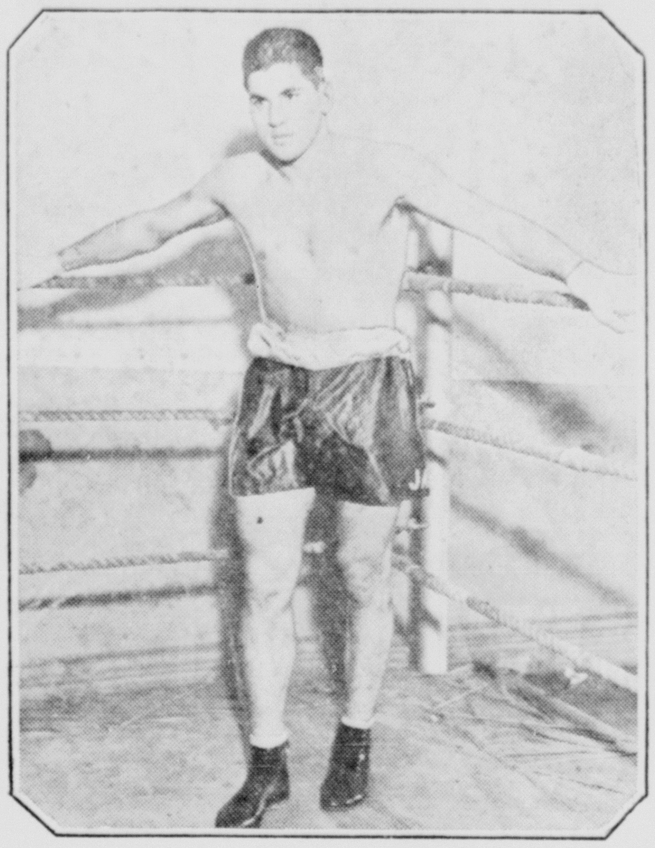

JIMMY is rugged, has plenty of speed for a big boy, and should get stronger as he takes on a couple of years and 10 or 12 pounds.

Savage and relentless inside the ropes, Adamick, still a comparative unknown to many fight fans, likes to mix it with his opponent. And once he gets to him—bam, and it's curtains.

A couple more bouts in the winter indoor wars and the young slugger will be well on his way to take on bigger game.

He's got the heart. Critics who have seen him work know that.

Joe Louis doesn't have too much to fear right now in black-haired Jimmy, but give him time. Time, so they say, has a habit of telling, and it might be bearer of bad tidings to Champion Joe Louis.

Clean-cut, well-developed, Jimmy Adamick, above, is considered the finest young prospect to enter the heavyweight ranks since Champion Joe Louis, himself, left the amateur circle for the pro game, in his climb up the fistic ladder.

Clinic for Bands Of Panhandle Is Planned Here

Plans for an all-Panhandle band clinic were formulated last week when a group of band directors of this section met with President J. A. Hill here Tuesday night.

The clinic which was tentatively scheduled for January 7-8 would be under the direction of noted band instructors from the East and would be open to all bands of the Panhandle area. Though details for the clinic are still in the process of formulation, the possibility of two ninety-piece bands made up of band members here for the clinic was discussed.

The clinic would be sponsored by the College.

"Other sections of the state have held similar clinics and have received much benefit. The Panhandle clinic will fill a need of long standing," Glenn A. Truax of Shamrock, president of the Panhandle Band Directors Association, said.

Directors here for the meeting with Dr. Hill included Mr. Truax, Mr. Leeds, McLean; Oscar Wise, Amarillo; Ralph Smith, Hereford; Marshall Riemenschneider, Canyon; Wallace R. Clark, and C. E. Strain of the College faculty.

Buffs To Invade El Paso for Tilt With Muckers

Taking to foreign pastures for the first time this season, thirty-three members of the West Texas Buffaloes embark for El Paso Friday where they tangle with Mack Saxon's Texas School of Mines gridsters Saturday.

Coach Baggett's charges were outclassed in their third game of the season at the hands of T. W. C.'s experienced eleven 13 to 6. This week the West Texas coaches will spare no rods to demonstrate a more creditable showing against the muckers.

In the Bison camp, two injuries, both regulars, will hinder their chance against the tip-top El Pasoans. Lother Stephenson, lanky tackle, broke his hand in the Ram game, and may not be able to play in this week's game. Monroe Horton, 175 pound guard from Wichita Falls, developed a "charley horse" in his right leg, and much of the Buffs' defensive power will be missing if he fails to mend in time.

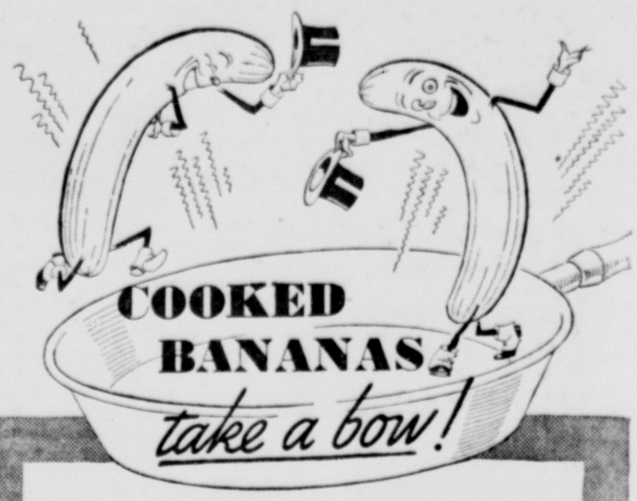

Pacing the speedy attack of the Miners is little Ken Heineman, a sophomore, who was largely instrumental in the win they picked up at the hands of the Texas Tech Matadors in the spring season. This year the Muckers were below their form in their opener, losing to New Mexico A. & M. 14 to 0. The triple threat duties will be handled by Russ Moore, passer and punter deluxe. The defensive power lies in the tackle posts filled by Mitchell Lowry and Odie Pierce. The aerial parade is dominated by All-Border Conference end, Lionel "Red" Andrews.

Probable starting lineups for the game will be:

Buffaloes: Walling and Neilson, ends; Harp and Stephenson or Bunch, tackles; Hinger and Horton, Woods; Williams, center; Dow, fullback; Slack and Lyde, halfbacks, and Thomas or Watkins, quarterback.

Miners: Arnold and Armes, ends; Pierce and Lowry, tackles; Paredes and King, guards; Hanna, center; Heineman, quarterback; Balenti and Moore, halfbacks; and May, fullback.

Evidently they call the new dance craze "Big Apple" because it takes a strong limb to keep it up.

NUPTIALS SPOKEN FOR MISS COLLINS, MR. SPRING

An impressive wedding ceremony was solemnized here Sunday morning, when Miss Ethel Ruth Collins became the bride of Mr. Frank Spring of Dalhart. The nuptial vows were spoken at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. T. W. Collins, with Rev. J. O. Quattlebaum, Jr., Methodist minister, officiating.

The ceremony was performed before an improvised altar of fern and greenery with vases of bronze chrysanthemums and fall flowers in the foreground. In the background and on either side of the altar stood candelabra holding tall blue tapers.

INSTALLS NEW FILTER FOR CLEANING NAPTHA

The Canyon Tailoring Company has installed a new Butler Pressure Filter which is used in connection with the cleaning process in the plant.

Naptha used in the cleaning machine runs through the filtering tanks where all of the foreign substance and dirt that may be taken from the garments are removed from the cleaning fluid. A surprising amount of dirt is collected in a short time by this system and removed from the naptha. The result is that fresh, clean naptha alone reaches the garments in the cleaning machine.

Owen Williams, owner of the Canyon Tailoring Company states that this is one of the largest and most up-to-date pressure filters in this section.

Mrs. J. Madison Daugherty was called to Lubbock last Saturday by the serious illness of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Ira Greenfield of Post, who underwent a major operation in the Lubbock Sanitarium. Mrs. Daugherty returned Sunday.

Greenbelt Project, First of Its Kind, Expected to Aid Low Income Families

TWO years ago, Greenbelt, Md., was a desolate, almost worthless stretch of land. Today it is a clean, modern, thriving community of more than 800 families, comprising the first federally-built, non-profit-making community in the country.

Springing from an idea by Rexford Tugwell, one of President Roosevelt's first brain-trusters, Greenbelt, a $14,227,000 project, is an experiment in model housing and town planning.

Greenbelt's citizenry has been drawn, for the most part, from Washington, D. C., and are in the lower income bracket of $1000 to $2000 a year.

Although actually an experiment, the town's architectural and physical development has not been a radical departure from the normal set-up. Three hundred of the 885 dwelling units now available are apartments, simple, small, but very modern and comfortable. The remaining housing facilities take the form of small, semi-detached homes. Average rent is $5.90 a room.

• • •

GREENBELT is meant to provide an inexpensive and more healthy existence for small income families; but that doesn't mean its populace will be deprived of modern conveniences, entertainment, and recreation.

Excellent sewage and electrical systems have been laid out. A grade school and first-class high school furnish adequate educational opportunities. A lake for swimming, fishing or sailing is also part of the development, along with gardens, woodlands, and an athletic center. Good roads and a telephone system give it an urban touch.

The plan is for the government to own and operate the housing facilities, act as rental agent, choose the tenants, and service the buildings.

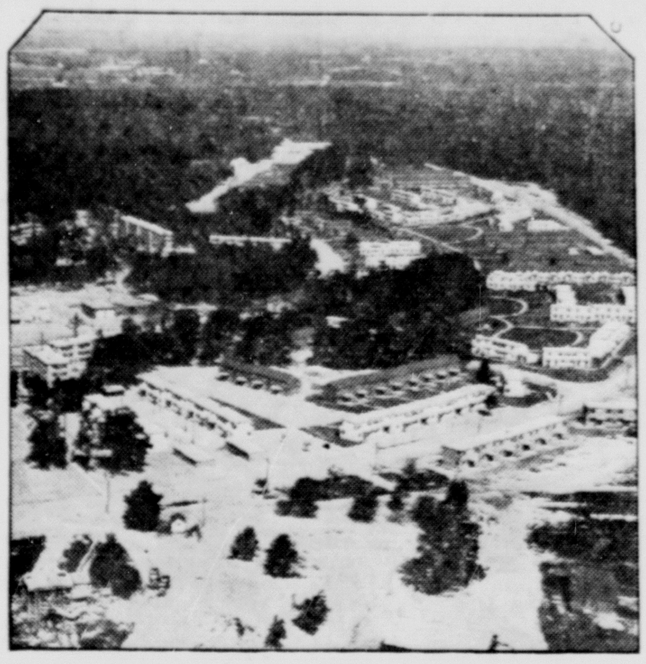

The town's citizens will organize their own government under a city manager charter. The business of the community, established as a co-operative by the late Edward A. Filene, Boston merchant, will embrace a movie theater, garage, restaurant, bar, and other enterprises, all to be run on a non-profit basis. Stock will be sold to those townspeople who desire it, and the books will be strictly totaled at regular intervals.

• • •

GREENBELT will pay no state, county or town tax levy. Surpluses from rent payments will run the community and pay the school bill.

Considered by many to be a step in the right direction, the development also has been criticized as too costly an experiment, has given rise to cries of "communism" and in the opinion of some critics may tend to make "guinea pigs" of the American people.

Although criticism was expected to be a natural outcome of such an experiment, the Farm Security Administration, controlling agency, already is developing two other communities on the same plan, in the Cincinnati and Milwaukee areas.

Shown in the excellent aerial view, top above, is Greenbelt, Md., built by the federal government as the first non-profit community in the United States. Below is one of the pleasant, modern, semi-detached homes which is part of the housing development.

SINCE WE INSTALLED OUR WARD FLOOR FURNACE

★ Mrs. O. C. Kilgore had a lot of trouble with unvented heating appliances that through excessive moisture mildewed her wallpaper, ruined furniture and hardwood floors. She writes to us: "Finally, you sold us the Ward Floor Furnace. All last winter our house stayed at a 72-degree temperature during the coldest weather, not a drop of moisture in the house, not even on the windows. Everything dried out. The floors, too, went back into place. Just wanted you to know how satisfactory the furnace is. It's good looking, it's out of the way, it works, and the gas bills are reasonable. You may tell any prospective customers how I feel about the Ward heater and give them my name."

That is pretty enthusiastic praise . . . but it's no more so than the enthusiasm which the majority of 325,000 Ward Floor Furnace users feel for this efficient, economical, modern method of heating. Hadn't you better have your Ward Floor Furnace installed now and enjoy controlled winter comfort for many years to come?

Rams' Aerial Attack Defeats Buffs in Last Stages

Splawn, McCarty Lead T.W.C. In Final Drive

Releasing a baffling aerial assault in the final minutes of play after three Buffalo scoring chances had been staved off, Monroe McCarty and Hal Splawn caught a sluggish Buffalo eleven off their guard for a brief interval and tabulated three passes that picked up 80 yards and gave the T. W. C. Rams a 13-6 win.

On three occasions in the fourth quarter the Buffs powered their way inside the Ram 20, and then relinquished their ground attack for a passing attack that failed to register. The last march started when Blake Lyde, Buff blocking back, intercepted McCarty's fumble on the 33 after he had passed 25 yards to Splawn and then came around to take the lateral.

The drive featured off tackle thrusts by Lammin' Lwood Dow who almost single-handedly carried the leather to the 15. After the ball went over to the visitors on downs, McCarty cocked his arm on five occasions and five times his peg hit the target to Rhome, Rutledge and Splawn. One forward, McCarty to Splawn was completed from the Buff 47 yard line to the 5. A penalty threw them back to the ten from where the visitors scored on the fourth play with Splawn carrying.

McCarty's Passes Clicked

The Buffs split running honors with the Rams, but were excelled by McCarty's marksmanship when he flipped 14 passes for 12 completions. Watkins threw the only completed Bison pass—that a 15 yard annexation to Dow in the third quarter. The Millermen piled up 187 yards from rushing, while the Baggettmen picked up 137 via this method.

In lamming for eight first downs in the first quarter, the Rams caught the Buffs napping, and proceeded to score in the last minute of the first quarter. A pass from McCarty to Rhome placed the ball on the 12 from where McCarty connected with the other wing-man, Hosea, for the touchdown. Hosea made the catch on the one and then wheeled around to evade Dow for the counter. Bray failed to convert from placement. Rams 6, Buffs 0.

Walling Blocks Punt

Co-Capt. Craig Walling forged to the spotlight when he seeped thru to block Splawn's attempted punt on the Buff 46 in the third quarter. The ball bounded to the one yard line where Splawn scooped it up, but he was swarmed by a horde of Bisons. The ball went to the Buffs by virtue of downs, and Dow plunged for the counter on the first play. He never had the opportunity to try for the point when Thomas fumbled Williams' pass from center. Score 6-6.

The game marked the third meeting of the two elevens, the Rams having won 6-0 in 1935, and the Buffs avenging the defeat 9-0 last year.

Miner Coach Determines To Beat Buffs This Year

"We've just got to beat you next time."

These are Mack Saxon's words, uttered in 1936 after the Buffaloes of West Texas State defeated the Muckers on the Texas College of Mines, El Paso, on the local field.

Saxon is head coach of the Muckers. His team has had consistently bad luck in tussles with teams coached by Baggett. The Buffaloes defeated the Mines eleven in 1934—first season of the Baggett regime—by a score of 21-0 and repeated at El Paso in 1935, 14-0.

It will be noted that the Muckers have gradually whittled down the point margin held by their plains rivals. This year, think the College of Mines, coaches, team, and students, the Canyon fans will receive bad news. The game is to be played next Saturday afternoon at El Paso, starting at 2:30 o'clock. Plans for a special train from here apparently will be dropped because of the cost involved.

It may be the Muckers' year, but there is much local skepticism. Coach Baggett, however, realizes the gravity of the situation and points to the huge size of the Muckers, their experience their determination, and the fact that it will be the first away-from-home game this seasons for the Buffaloes. The locals have run this record to date:

West Texas State 35; Panhandle Aggies 0.

West Texas State 19; Daniel Baker 9.

West Texas State 6; Texas Wesleyan 13.

There is no tendency here to underrate the team which in spring training defeated Texas Tech 10 to 7, although the Mines outfit, possibly through over-confidence, fell before a surprising eleven from New Mexico State, 14 to 0, Sept. 24. This defeat and the row of losses to West Texas State are expected to inspire them to the heights Saturday.

The Buffaloes will hurl an improving forward wall averaging 187 pounds against a Mucker crew probably weighing as much. The local backfield, strong in weight, speed, and reserves, can bench its starters and improve its passing and line backing. Watkins is an extraordinary chunker and Matney, halfback, is the most vicious line-backer on the squad. Any one of the local backs is dangerous when loose in an open field.

From El Paso comes the news that the Muckers are strengthening their team after the surprising initial defeat last week. All-Conference "Red" Andrews, who recently underwent a minor knee operation, is again a factor. Hayden Ransom, an end, is being tried at right guard. Riley Matheson, 195-pound junior college transfer, is available to replace Pearce at right tackle. John Hanna and Barry Pennington are alternating at center. Captain O. P. May, star back, has a dangerous rival these days in Buddy Black, sophomore fullback. Black played a great game in the opener. Tony Hernandez, peppery little quarterback is an inspiration to the Muckers.

Coaches Saxon, Pennington, and Phillips have 39 men, many of whom weigh 185 pounds above and tower above 5 feet 11 inches. Many of them are junior college transfers. Kenneth Heineman, is being advertised as a second Slingin' Sammy Baugh. He is used as a halfback or at quarter. Heineman received much credit for defeat of the Tech Matadors in the spring.

The captain of the El Paso team is May, who earned his first varsity letter last year after transferring from Northeast Center of Louisiana State University. Pearce, a veteran tackle from Anson, is line captain.

"I read Winchell's column aloud just to annoy the neighbors. There's a fellow, that Winchell—a second Abraham Lincoln."

87 SPEED RECORDS BROKEN TO MAKE TIRES SAFER FOR YOU

Never Before Have Tires Been Put to Such Gruelling Torture

Ab Jenkins, World's Safest Driver, Establishes 87 New Records for Safety, Speed, Mileage and Endurance. He Drove 3,774 Miles in 24 Hours on the Sharp Granite-like Surface of the Bonneville Salt Beds at Average Speed of 157.27 Miles an Hour

AT SPEEDS as high as 180 miles an hour — with the hot, coarse, abrasive salt grinding, tearing, scorching his tires — Ab Jenkins' special racer weighing nearly three tons, pounded over the Bonneville Salt Beds at such terrific speed that it caused the surface to break up. Before the end of the run the track was so pitted and rough that it was almost impossible to hold the car on its course. Yet Jenkins set 87 new World, International and American speed records on Firestone Tires.

Building tires capable of establishing such records is made possible only because of patented Firestone manufacturing processes. These exclusive features enable Firestone to provide car owners with tires that are extra safe.

For the greatest protection of yourself and your family equip your car with Firestone TRIPLE-SAFE Tires. By TRIPLE-SAFE we mean—

1 PROTECTION AGAINST SKIDDING—The scientific tread design gives longer non-skid mileage and stops your car up to 25% quicker.

2 PROTECTION AGAINST BLOWOUTS—Firestone Tires run up to 28 degrees cooler because every fiber of every cord in every ply is saturated with liquid rubber by the Firestone patented Gum-Dipping process. This counteracts the internal friction and heat that ordinarily cause blowouts.

3 PROTECTION AGAINST PUNCTURES—Two extra layers of Gum-Dipped cords under the tread add strength to the tire and give extra protection against punctures.

Now is the time to make your car tire-safe for fall and winter driving. Join the Firestone SAVE A LIFE Campaign today by equipping your car with a set of new FIRESTONE TRIPLE-SAFE Tires — the safest tires that money can buy!

YOU CANNOT AFFORD TO DRIVE WITHOUT FIRESTONE TRIPLE-SAFE TIRES

Last year highway accidents cost the lives of more than 38,000 men, women and children and a million more were injured!

More than 40,000 of these deaths and injuries were caused directly by punctures, blowouts and skidding due to smooth, worn, unsafe tires!

Left is a section cut from a new Firestone Tire. Note the thick, non-skid protection against skidding, blowouts and punctures. Come in and see a demonstration.

"Good Gas With Dependable Service"

NOBODY'S BUSINESS

BY JULIAN CAPERS, JR.

Austin.—Accompanied by a fanfare of oratory and belligerent press statements, emanating from Gov. Allred and Sen. Tom Holbrook of Galveston, leaders of the more tax and anti-tax factions, the legislature laid the groundwork during its first week's session for a memorable tax battle. The house revenue and taxation committee, receiving some 30 tax proposals, sent them to subcommittees. The general plan adopted was to lump most of the revenue proposals into an omnibus bill, which would raise tax rates on natural resources, theater admissions, public utilities, carbon black and cement by about 45 per cent—sufficient to yield three-fourths of the $15,000,000 demanded by Allred. In addition, the committee likely will bring out several single shot measures including an amended franchise tax bill and some method of increasing taxes on oil pipelines.

Battle Yet To Come

As public hearings on this general skeleton plan got under way, it appeared that at least another week will be necessary before a definite line on the real tax battle can be obtained. Stiff opposition is certain to be encountered from many sources that will be penalized under the omnibus bill. The new rate on crude oil would be 4 per cent, and marginal well owners claim many of them will be forced out of business by such a tax. Residents of rural areas and small towns already are registering bitter opposition to proposed increases on gas and power and light companies which serve them. Rates in these rural areas have always been higher than in cities, because of low volume and limited buying power of most of the customers. The legislature has recognized this by exempting gross receipts in towns of 2500 and under from the gross receipts tax, and graduating the tax scale in towns up to 10,000. Under the new bill, this graduation is wiped out. Small town consumers claim their rates will be unjustly increased, and the power companies declare they cannot continue building rural lines to extend service to farmers, if the tax is raised.

Sale By Drink Proposed

The house liquor committee favorably reported Rep. Emmett Morse's bill, proposing to legalize sale of mixed alcoholic drinks in establishments whose main business is sale of food. Morse estimates the 10 per cent sales tax provided on such drinks, together with license fees, will yield $2,000,000 a year additional revenue. Sentiment for the measure seems stronger than at any previous time, and several members who have discussed it with Gov. Allred declare they believed he would sign the bill, if passed. It would apply only in the 44 counties which now legalize sale of hard liquor. The governor has been publicly silent about the measure.

Senate May Balk

Regardless of the house's action on the tax problem, there is sure to be a bitter battle in the senate. The senate investigating committee, headed by Holbrook, put itself in position to force Allred to permit action on reducing appropriations, when it reduced the appropriation bill to pay for the special session from $100,000 to $50,000. This may necessitate a supplemental per diem bill later and the plan is to attach to it amendments to reduce departmental appropriations, thus getting around Allred's refusal to submit economy to the session. The senate bitter-enders will fight to prevent any additional taxes whatever, and there is such a close division of strength in the upper house that the last week of the session will doubtless be the earliest date anybody actually knows how the battle is going.

Oil In Limelight

Federal control and federal taxation of the oil industry, always of paramount interest to Texas, with half the country's oil reserves within her borders, flared into the limelight again this week. At Kansas City, Col. Ernest O. Thompson, member of the Texas railroad commission and chairman of the interstate compact commission, told members of the American Bar association that the compact method has proved its efficacy in regulating the industry, and conserving the oil resources. Congress recently extended the life of the oil states compact two years, on Thompson's urging.

The compact, operating as it does through representatives of sovereign states who are responsible to the people of the states, is responsive to public opinion. It is the anthesis of federal control, acknowledging no dictatorship and insuring against decree government and fiat-directed economy. It represents the choice between arbitration and conciliation, on one side, and the harsh decrees from a centralized dictatorship on the other."

Meanwhile, several members of the legislature voiced fear that the federal government may soon seek to tax crude oil for federal revenue. Both Gov. Allred and Sen. Joe Hill expressed uneasiness, while Sen. Claude Westerfeld of Dallas, wrote President Roosevelt, urging him to recommend a federal tax, because he thought the state tax is not high enough.

Liquor Board in Balance

Public discussion of the desirability of abolishing the state liquor control board, turning the tax collecting function over to the comptroller, and leaving enforcement to local officers, has brought on a storm of argument. Opponents of the board point to the $1,000,000 a year it costs to operate it, and claim the money should go into the treasury. Drys, however, contend the liquor industry should pay for enforcement through taxes, and these taxes are not intended as general revenue. They assert tax collections would drop substantially under any other system, encouraging bootlegging, tax evasion and other evils, while liquor law enforcement would be a joke, with 250 different kinds of enforcement being carried out by as many county officials. As a dry, Gov. Allred would be expected to veto any measure to repeal the act creating the commission, which was set up under his administration and furnishes one of the richest sources of patronage for the governor's office.

Needed—One Texas Cowboy

Something which smacked slightly of an American rodeo came to Romford, England, cattle market, when this bull escaped from its pen, stampeded through traffic, and scattered traffic on all sides before it finally was captured. These motorists spent a very unpleasant minute, wondering whether the beleaguered animal would climb a fender or a running board in its flight down the street.

Hot weather story to end all hot weather stories is that told by the Texas farmer who claimed the heat was so intense it popped the popcorn in his field.

That old puzzler—when was mutton the highest?—has been answered by a news item reporting that 10,000 sheep were shipped 350 miles by plane in central Asia.

THE EAGLE'S TALE

Beat Hereford!!!

VOLUME NO. 12 — PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY CANYON HIGH SCHOOL PRESS CLUB — NUMBER 4

That wus shure a good game with that Friona bunch, an our boys are gonna have a tough time with our ole rivals—the Hereford whitefaces. I'm bettin on the Eagles though.

I shure though the band and Pep Squad had a purtty stunt Friday at Friona.

I never saw so many rabbits lying in the road dead. Always it seems the left hind foot is gone.

I was down in the Agriculture Department tother day an boy did that Elton Breitling blush when Mr. Morris asked where Eston's agriculture pin an basketball wus. Strange but I saw a gal in the schule who had on a agriculture pin an a boys' gold basketball, but maybe she's a basketball player and a Future Farmer.

What's this I hear about Gladys Hutton and Mary Bourn getting stood up. By the way Gladys who is that cute little boy I've been hearing so much about.

Mr. Carruth shure looked funny standing out in front of the schule helping the Pep Girls chant, "we want a bus." I couldn't figure whether it was a set down strike or not cause the boss was in with it too.

Say Clarence Zachry and Mr. Bellah's little girl are kinda steppin out aren't they?

Wal folks Cactus will sign off, shaken in his boots an avoiding all black cats and so forth so them boys will beat Hereford.

DON'T GIVE OUR SCHOOL A BLACK EYE

"A wad some Power the giftie gie us
To see oursels as ithers see us!"
—Burns.

When we go away to a football game or when another school comes here, we criticize severely as to how their spectators act and how they treat us. When we are in another town, each student is not just an individual, but he is a representative of Canyon High School and the entire school is judged by how he acts; therefore we, as individuals, should strive to make the best reputation possible for our school.

We wish to commend the band, pep squad, and football team for their good conduct at the football game at Frinoa last Friday night, but we do not wish to commend some of the other students who were representing our high school. It may be "cute" or "smart" to act silly at a game or anywhere else, but the reflection on our school is not good. If students wish to show off, it seems that it would be better for them to stay at home and really tear up the town when no visitors are here and people know them and will remember the individual and forgive him rather than blame the school.

We are having our first home game this Friday. Hereford will be our visitors. What kind of an impression will we leave with Hereford?

Ritchie Addresses Parent-Teachers Thursday Night

"If We Lived in Australia," was the subject of the talk given by Miss Jennie C. Ritchie at the first meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association last Thursday night. Marshall Riemenschneider and six members of the Canyon High School Band played several numbers, and I. B. Carruth introduced the members of the faculty.

Since her talk was made especially to the children, Miss Ritchie began by asking them whether they would rather live in Canyon than take a trip to Australia. Of course all the children voiced their opinions in favor of Australia.

Stops in Hawaii

The first stop on this trip was Hawaii. When Miss Ritchie asked the audience what they would expect to find in Hawaii, Frank Sharman, sixth grader, told Miss Ritchie he would expect to find hula hula girls. That was what she expected someone to say, and she exhibited one of the college girls attired in the hulagirl costume which Miss Ritchie brought back with her.

She told of many interesting things in Hawaii such as faucets which give pineapple juice, and various queer animals. She showed a boy dressed in a Samoan costume.

Kangaroos in Australia

Leaving Hawaii and talking of Australia, she showed the audience a boomerang, a Koala bear, flags of the states in Australia, quaint native dolls, and a stuffed kangaroo. Miss Ritchie said, "Among our group there was a man from Fort Worth who enjoyed feeding animals. He fed one of the kangaroos a large sack of potato chips, and the kangaroo seemed to enjoy them very much. Finally, when the sack was empty and the kangaroo knew there were no more potato chips, he stiffened his tail, leaned back on one hind foot and with the other foot boxed the man so hard that his flesh turned blue."

She said, "The things I most enjoyed on my trip were the beautiful birds, the queer animals, and the strange natives." After Miss Ritchie's speech many of the children went up on the stage and viewed her souvenirs.

Faculty Introduced

During the business meeting Mr. Carruth introduced all the members of the faculty. The P. T. A. decided on October 29 as the date for the annual Hallowe'en Carnival. Accompanied by Mr. Riemenschenider, Dean Nicholas played "The Old Refrain," on his clarinet; Kenneth Cofer played "The Mighty Deep," a bass solo; Grant Sharman and Hudson Prichard played a duet, "My Song of Songs," and the brass quartet, Anna Ruth Schmitz, Martha Frances Campbell, Grant Sharman and Hudson Prichard, played "Deep River," and "O Solo Mio."

A social meeting followed the business meeting. The parents furnished cake, coffee and cocoa, which were served by Mrs. Warren Johnson, Mrs. Clarence Thompson, Mrs. Bill Money, Mrs. Albert Brown, Mrs. C. A. Higdon, Mrs. D. M. Foster, Mrs. V. C. Allen.

Between two and three hundred members were present.

HINKLE SPEAKS TO ASSEMBLY

"Kentucky is one of the most beautiful states from the standpoint of blue grass. I went to Kentucky because I wanted to see what was on the other side of the Mississippi," said Mr. Olin E. Hinkle, journalism professor at West Texaas State Teachers College.

Canyon is Mr. Hinkle's home town. Mr. Hinkle has been the editor of The Prairie and The Pampa Daily News. While in Kentucky he was managing editor of the Lexington Herald.

Mr. Hinkle continued, "While you hear Bob Burns talk of mountaineers, when you go into their schools, the girls are as pretty and the boys as intelligent looking as anyone. Of course, they still make a little moonshine. When in Kentucky you may be scared by a Kentuckian carrying a six-foot gun; it is an old custom that the mountaineer isn't considered well dressed unless he carries one. In Kentucky the old feuds are a derivation of people who came from the hills of England and Scotland."

"Kentucky is well known for its fine racing events," said Mr. Hinkle. "The reason horses are raised here is because of the good lime-stone, bone-building blue grass which grows so abundantly. The great Kentucky Derby is held at Louisville every year. Mr. Hinkle told of his experiences as a newspaper man in the flooded area of Kentucky last spring. He ended his talk by giving a vivid description of the Kentucky fox hunts.

Eastus Selects Drum Corps

Miss Annie Ruth Eastus selected the drum corps Sept. 21 to play at the Friona game.

Miss Eastus said, "The girls were chosen by their ability to drum and not by the color of their eyes."

Those chosen for the snare drums were Martha Jo Newlin, Lillian Chambers, Claribelle Newberry, Retha Lindsay, Hazel Sanders, Sue Terry, Renna Beth Bellah, Shirley Ann Oliver, Margaret Stewart, Betty Joe Black, and Jimmie Sol Slack.

Helen Hurst was chosen for the bass drummer.

Changes will probably be made for the other games to follow, and three more drums have been ordered.

Home Ec Club Makes Plans

Plans for the Home Economics Club for the first semester were worked out at a meeting of a committee at the home of Nell Freeman. Those on the committee were Sue Terry, Hazel Sanders, Edrie McNeil, Mary Zachry, Margaret Stewart, and Miss Freeman.

Sue Terry and Edrie McNeil had charge of the program for today. On October 26, new members will be formally initiated.

The Mother-Daughter banquet will be given on October 28. The club will have a meeting with the local chapter of Future Farmers of America on November 10. A Thanksgiving party has been planned for November 25. Miss Ritchie, from the college, will talk about homes in the far east on December 8th.

Their Christmas party has been planned for December 22. New Year's Resolutions will be discussed on January 5. The club will give a play soon after Christmas holidays.

The seventh grade has their own club with Margaret Stewart and Lillian Chambers as sponsors.

SENIORS PRESENT GIFT TO MR. POPE

A gift of farewell from the senior class was presented to Mr. John B. Pope, former principal of Canyon High School, who left for Austin September 28, where he will work as State Coordinator of Distributional Education.

Mr. Gerald Brown, sponsor of the senior class bought the gift, a tie and handkerchief set, on behalf of the class. The money was taken from the senior treasury.

German Band Plays at CCC Camp

Last Wednesday evening the German Band and Quartet of the Canyon High School Band journeyed to the CCC Camp and played a short program in honor of the graduation of several members of the camp.

The Brass Quartet played "Deep River," and "O Solo Mio." The German Band played "Little Brown Jug," "Aal Lie, Hal Lo," and "Lauterbach." In concluding the band's portion of the program, Grant Sharman played a trombone solo, "The Message." Three members of the camp presented three novelty numbers. The program was then turned over to the Commander for presentation of the awards of merit to the graduating class.

Grant Sharman, Martha F. Campbell, Hudson Prichard, and Annie Ruth Schmitz are members of the Brass Quartet. Hudson Prichard, W. J. Wooten, Dean Nicholas, Grant Sharman, and Kenneth Cofer compose the German Band.

SENIOR CLASS HAS PARTY AT BLACK'S HOME

A party was given the senior class Tuesday night at the Sanford Black home, by a committee of seniors: chairman, Obera Burgan, Helen Hurst, Sanford Black, James La Cour, and Douglas Brasuel.

Games were planned by Sanford Black. Refreshments of fruit gelatin salad, punch and smacks.

The Chinese and Japanese are peacefull people because they eat very little meat, says a prominent vegetarian. Maybe it's only a high-powered publicity gag in the far east.

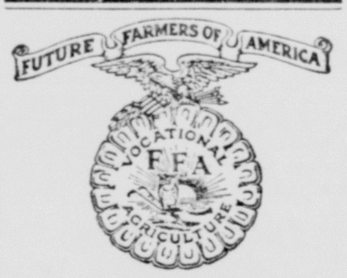

WE COULD REALLY USE FOUR HUNDRED MILLION

$400,000,000. That is a lot of money! Just how long do you suppose this sum would keep Canyon High School running without taxation? That much money would last practically indefinitely. Or suppose it were divided equally between our 48 states, then each state would be allotted $8,333,333. What on earth could we use this money for in Texas? Well, this would take care of the payment of old age pensions and would eliminate the necessity of the present special session of our state legislature, and if it were allotted to the national government, it would keep it going for some time. We could have all of our unemployed working at worth while projects; slums could be cleaned out and adequate housing programs could be carried on; parks could be bought and improved until everyone had access to them; and soil conservation projects could be realized, all without additional taxation.

But instead of having this much money to carry out projects, it is lost through fires every average five year period. And besides the huge monetary loss, thousands of lives are lost every year.

But in spite of these tremendous losses, we all think of being careful only during fire demonstrations and then forget all about the precautions preached to us from every side.

This much money is not stacked up and burned every five years. If it were we would still have the ore to make more money, but instead, merchandise and property valued at $400,0000,000 is burned or ruined by fire every five years. We would be shocked into action by the mass burning of that much property or slaying of so many people, but just because we cannot see all of this property, shall we remain indifferent and suffer such loss?—J. A.

Next Wednesday night in the Agriculture room the F. F. A. Chapter will meet and discuss the plans of the year.

Profit and loss statements on farm projects have been the topics of discussion in the class this week. Mr. Morris has visited half of the projects this week and the others he plans to see in the near future.

Mr. Reid of the Reid printing shop, of Canyon, has printed some stationery for the chapter. The emblem, officers and advisor are included in the make up of the stationery.

Two new members have been included in the chapter. They include Curtis Ross and Billy Scott

Canyon Eagles Will Clash With Hereford Tomorrow

Undefeated And In High Spirits They Will Meet Their Old Rivals At the Buffalo Stadium

FIRST HOME GAME

Hereford Is Preparing To Bring Large Crowd To Back Team

Tomorrow night at 8 o'clock at Buffalo Stadium, the Canyon Eagles will meet the Hereford White Faces in the seventeenth annual gridiron tilt.

This game is not a conference game, since Canyon was transferred into the north section of the district this year, but as usual this game furnishes one of the high spots of interest during the season. Hereford is expected to bring over the entire town. Already 300 tickets are in her hands.

In order to put the old Eagles' spirit into students of C. H. S., the Pep Squad and band will hold a pep rally and bon fire tonight on the vacant lot just north of third avenue. It is a custom to have a pep rally before we meet our old rivals, the Hereford Whitefaces.

Spectators are wearing "Beat Hereford" tags.

Since 1921, Canyon has won 11 games against Hereford's 5 and a total of 246 scores to their 111.

Records show the following scores since 1921:

Year	Eagles	Whitefaces
1936	20	0
1935	0	33
1934	0	24
1933	0	0 (h)
1932	13	7
1931	0	7
1930	6	0
1929	18	20
1928	19	14
1927	14	0
1926	20	0
1925	32	0
1924	20	6
1923	29	0

Last week Hereford beat Happy in a conference game 19-6, and the Eagles beat Friona 34-0. Hereford was beaten by Panhandle 6-0, and Pampa had no easy time with Panhandle with a score last week of 13to 0 for the Harvesters of A class. The Eagles have not been beaten this season; they beat Memphis 12-6 in their first game and Friona 34-0 last week.

The probable starting line up is:

Liberals Hold Their Convention Today

The members of the Liberal party which is one of the major parties in the election of the Student Council president, held their convention in assembly today in the auditorium.

J. D. Brietling, last year's chairman brought the convention to order and then handed it over to the new chairman, Sarah Thompson. Mabry Vandergriff, last year's secretary, called the roll and then gave the minutes to the new secretary, Shirley Ann Oliver.

The band played while the Liberals, each given a state to represent, paraded around the auditorium showing everyone, with posters, what state they represented.

Collins, '29, Spring Marry Sunday

Miss Ethel Ruth Collins, '29, and Frank Spring, Dalhart, were united in marriage Sunday morning at 10 o'clock at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. T. W. Collins in a beautiful ring ceremony with Rev. J. O. Quattlebaum of the First Methodist Church officiating.

The bride wore a blue brocade chiffon gown with burgandy slippers. Her blue veil was held in place by burgandy rolled feathers. The bride's bouquet was of tallisman roses.

The bride was attended by her sister, Mary Collins, '37, who was dressed in a burgandy moire taffeta dress and carried a bouquet of shasta daisies and roses. The bride groom's attendant was his brother, Paul Spring of Lubbock.

The bridal party stood before an improvised altar of burgandy chrysanthemums and blue tapers in a candleabra.

Mr. Glen F. Davis White Deer, sang, "I Love You Truly," and "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life," accompaning himself at the piano. He also played a piano selection, "Schubert's Serenade."

After the ceremony the guests were served the wedding cake and punch.

The bride changed to a black satin polka dot skirt, a black velvet jacket with a white gardenia, and black suede accessories. The bride and bridegroom left for a two weeks trip to California.

Mrs. Spring was graduated from Canyon high school and W. T. S. T. C. She has taught in Stone, Friona, and Amarillo schools. Last summer she was a counselor at Life Camp in Georgetown, Conn. Mrs. Collins is a first grade teacher in Canyon Grade Schools.

Mr. Spring is associated with International Harvester Co., having headquarters in Dalhart.

The couple will be at home after October 18 in Dalhart.

Grade Notes

Mary Berry, from Claude, enrolled last week in the third grade.

The pupils of the grade school had their first Fire Drill last week. They organized a Grade School Fire Company. Junior Boyce was appointed Fire Chief. The company members are: Willie Schuette, Rex Gamble, Raymond Graves, Jay Ray Hunter, Leslie Morrisset, William Riemenschneider, Frank Sharman, Wendell Morrisset, J. Spencer Winn, Thomas Harold Thompson, Loyce Davis, Doyle Chain, James Guthrie, Riding Sloan, Harold Railing, Paul Cooke, and Calvin Sanders.

Mrs. J. Q. Davis, the former Thelma Thorp, who taught the first grade several years ago, visited grade school last week. Her home is now in Pampa.

The third grade pupils, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Carl Scott, made an excursion trip Friday afternoon. They visited the park and museum. The class is now studying "how the city provides for recreation."

Mrs. John Davis' sixth grade presented an assembly program Friday on "Time." Several talks were given on a famous clock. The play, "Billy Finds Out About Clocks" was also presented.

Mr. W. J. Adrian, father of Billy Jo Adrian, donated the melons for a watermelon feast for 6B. Mrs. John Davis and Mrs. Guy Tabor also attended the feast.

Billie Bee Flesher, '36, and her cousin, Mary Ann Baird of Hereford, visited in school Monday afternoon.

Trouble seems to have a way of meeting the fellow who goes out to hunt it.

EAGLES DEFEAT FRIONA CHIEFS 34 TO 0

The Canyon Eagles defeated the Friona Chiefs 34 to 0, at Friona, Friday night.

Captain Ray Ford Rusk led the scoring for the Eagles. Rusk scored once in the first half and twice in the second half. Ford and Gill scored once each. Gill's score came in the first quarter, and Ford's score came in the second when he went off tackle 45 yards for the score. Butler and Rusk scored the extra point by plunging the line.

In the last half Rusk scored twice, once off tackle and the other through the middle for 40 yards.

The Chiefs threatened to score several times but lacked enough power to push it over. Brookfield and Short were outstanding for the Chiefs, while Rusk and Gill did some good playing for the Eagles.

The lineup follows:

CLASSES DISPATCH BUSINESS WED.

The classes of Canyon High School met on Sept. 29 for class meetings in their respective rooms.

The seniors made plans for the selection of their rings, and it was decided that Mr. Carruth should order catalogues from which the rings could be chosen.

The juniors discussed plans for producing a play. They elected Gordon Beck to sponsor the production.

The sophomores elected a new room mother, Mrs. John Hunter, since Mrs. Percy Walters, whom they elected at the beginning of school could not serve. A social committee for the year of Billy Jo Hunter, Alvis Ford, Sunshine Harden, Fern Walters, and the chairman, Mary Bourn, was elected. Plans were made for a party Saturday night.

The freshmen elected Mr. Milton Sanders as their sponsor, and planned a picnic for next Wednesday.

Dupriest Demonstrates Memograph Machine

Carl Dupreist, of the Russell Stationery Co., in Amarillo and C. E. Crossman, representative of A. B. Dick Co., also in Amarillo, gave a demonstration of the mimeograph machine in the bookkeeping room last Friday.

Mr. Dupreist, assisted by Mr. Crossman, showed how it was possible to make colored posters with the mimeograph and how to cut the stencil and to shade pictures.

They showed how to trace pictures on a stencil, how to fasten the stencil in the machine, and how to change it from black ink to different colors. They ran off three posters and gave each student present one so they could see how it worked.

Mr. Dupreist volunteered to make posters for the Canyon-Hereford game Friday.

Club Elects Prichard President

Dorothy Ann Prichard was elected president of the seventh grade Home Economics Club, September 30. Margaret Stewart and Lillian Chambers, seniors, are the co-sponsors.

Other officers elected were vice-president, Fern Tucker, secretary-treasurer, Josephine Steen, program chairman, Lorene Carr, social chairman, Marie Steen, song leader, Mildred Gill, and pianist, Beulah Hammond.

BAND PARENTS ASSOCIATION MEETS NEXT MONDAY

The Band Parents Association will meet in the High School auditorium on next Monday night.

The band will give a short program and will feature ensembles and solos. The program has not been definitely worked out as yet, but will be by the time of the meeting.

Mrs. Lee McLaury, the former Virginia Burgan, ex-student of '34, is visiting in the A. M. Burgan home.

Seniors Learn To Speak Correctly?

"Wunzt theyuza," "jist," "youall," "git," "javagootim," "theyuza"—strange as it may seem these expressions were used by senior English students during the last week while studying oral composition.

With Bill Bewley, as engineer, the class took a trip through various parts of the United States. The Drum Corps, trip to Dallas, and various individual trips elsewhere were included.

Some of the topics for oral compositions were: introductions, giving directions to strangers, telephone conversations, radio broadcasts, jokes, sale talks, receiving gifts, and personal experiences.

The purpose of these talks is to improve speech, poise, and personality.

CLASSES HOLD CONTEST IN TICKET SALE

There is a contest between the classes as to which will sell the most season tickets for the home games.

These tickets are 80 cents each, 20 cents for each game. Regular tickets are 25 cents each; so by buying a season ticket, there will be a saving of 20 cents. The sale ends this afternoon and season tickets will not be available in the future.

Mr. Gerald Brown attended the funeral of his uncle in Amarillo last week.

Mildred Scott, sophomore from Happy, enrolled in school last Monday.

"The Rest of the Record"

BY JAMES V. ALLRED
Governor of Texas

One of the ablest groups of newspapermen in America is reporting the present legislature session from the capitol pressrooms. Keen and intelligent, they do a good job of covering and reporting the daily happenings of the Legislature.

It is no criticism to their fine work to say that often the average newspaper reader loses sight of the real issues in the mass of conflicting statements and reports which must be carried by the press. An example occurred this week when a good farmer friend wrote me that the farmers of his section "strongly opposed any increase in taxes, especially on farm real estate and taxes that affect farmers as a whole."

Now I have never had any desire for the legislature to pass that kind of a tax program nor have I ever sponsored such a plan. The record shows that I cast my vote with the state comptroller to lower the state ad valorem tax to 7c which is the lowest in over twenty years.

As I told my farmer friend, I am urging a tax program to raise money from only a small, under-taxed and over-privileged group—interests able to pay the cost for financing old age assistance, aid to needy blind, dependent children, and teachers' retirement. An example of such a group is that of five major pipe line companies who in one year reported a total net profit of forty-one million dollars but paid altogether to the state the "tremendous" sum of $5,647.99 in franchise taxes.

These are the kind of folks I want to see taxed—not to penalize them, but so that they will bear their portion of our state government cost.

* * *

The only group that I know who want to levy taxes that "affect agriculture as a whole" are the "sales-taxers." A sales tax would fall squarely on the shoulders of the farmers and the working people.

Lobbyists for all the big pipe line companies and other special interests watching the Legislature favor a general sales tax. Spokesmen for this group are saying no new taxes are needed. Such statements are simply a smokescreen to defeat the people's program. Everyone of that group would vote tomorrow for a general sales tax if I would agree to it.

Their strategy is to stave off any taxes as long as possible until our state is in such a terrible shape that some future governor out of desperation may turn to a general sales tax. To carry out their plan, this group has organized a campaign of propaganda to frighten the farmers and little business men into thinking that my tax program is going to hurt them.

They raise the hollow charge that I want to levy more tax burdens on the people. The taxes I propose would fall on the shoulders of the over-privileged groups which are able to pay.

* * *

A certain senator and his associates in the "sit-down" strike against adequate revenues for the needy charge that I have increased the cost of statae government. They point to increased appropriations during the past ten years as though I were responsible for all of them.

I wonder why they are not fair enough to let the people know that represented in their figures is the money that is collected for unemployment insurance and for relief bonds which the people voted. Practically everything I have had anything to do with was voted by the people. The increased appropriations for ordinary purposes of government were voted by the Legislature against my recommendations.

Texas cannot have progressive government by launching destructive economies and institution-wrecking politics in order to save a few privileged interests from just taxation.

The people do not want to economize by cutting out unemployment insurance or old age assistance. The votes in every senatorial district registered overwhelming approval for aid to the blind, dependent children and the needy.

I believe that the majority of the legislators have the political courage and the patriotic purpose to provide for the state's unfortunates and to balance the budget.

THE GREAT AMERICAN HOME

To keep your engine running smoothly, the oil you use must really do a job! Must cling to metal like the paper on the wall. Must supply a friction-fighting film that is tougher than tough.

That's where Phillips 66 Motor Oil comes in. It has high-degree oiliness. Its heat-resistant film does not thin out or squeeze out. It stays put in the bearings and on all moving surfaces. Stands up amazingly. Lasts longer. Holds your oil level high. All because it is specially refined from a costlier 100% paraffin base crude.

Next time, drain and refill with Phillips 66 Motor Oil. It's concentrated! . . . This year's big value in car lubrication. Look for the Orange and Black 66 Shield.

Beware Coughs from common colds That Hang On

No matter how many medicines you have tried for your cough, chest cold, or bronchial irritation, you can get relief now with Creomulsion. Serious trouble may be brewing and you cannot afford to take a chance with any remedy less potent than Creomulsion, which goes right to the seat of the trouble and aids nature to soothe and heal the inflamed mucous membranes and to loosen and expel the germ-laden phlegm.

Even if other remedies have failed, don't be discouraged, try Creomulsion. Your druggist is authorized to refund your money if you are not thoroughly satisfied with the benefits obtained from the very first bottle. Creomulsion is one word—not two, and it has no hyphen in it. Ask for it plainly, see that the name on the bottle is Creomulsion, and you'll get the genuine product and the relief you want. (Adv.)

Netmen To Play Opener Against Tech Saturday

West Texas State's netmen travel to Lubbock Saturday for their first match of the fall season with Jimmy Allen's Texas Tech's Matadors.

The loss of four squadmen was a blow to Coach W. E. Lockhart, and his present squad is composed of newcomers, with the exception of letterman Norton Curry of Plainview. Curry is bidding for his third letter. He dropped only six matches last season out of the 24 he played. Although Coach Lockhart has not rated his players, Curry is almost sure to get the nod for the first position. His opponent will be wiry Harry Jordan, Tech's mighty atom and the 1937 Border Conference doubles champion. Curry dropped to Jordan in a three set match previously, and thus will go into the match as the underdog.

Three recruits, Brummett McLendon of Amarillo, Frank Kelly of Panhandle, and Lynard Riley of Spearman, will complete the four man squad that Lockhart plans to use.

Following Jordan on the Tech squad are Wilson Chapman, Border Conference singles champ, Aubrey McCarty, Sydney Moore and Jack Hays, Buffalo letterman of last year.

Cooking School

They may seem like a tall order for one motion picture, but this entertainment is no ordinary film.

True, it was cast, directed and filmed in a famed Hollywood studio, but it was assembled thoughtfully and patiently to bring more than passing amusement. Everyday happenings were dramatized in the sound plot. Behind the sparkling humor and suspense that are so necessary to screen stories, was a deliberate plan—an ambitious determination to carry instruction, inspiration and worth-while home news to women in every community.

The camera and the home specialist got together on their vigorous investigation, and The Canyon News was quick to snap up the chance to offer the interesting result.

Never has the camera been more faithful than in this motion picture Cooking School. Never has a model kitchen been portrayed so accurately and in such detail.

The camera took its time and it took its close-ups, so that every person in the Olympic Theater will have a "large as life, and twice as natural" view of each operation. There will be no "orchestra circle" at this entertainment, since the back row guests of The Canyon News will have an equal chance to peer into the busy mixing bowl, watching the deft steps of measuring, creaming and thorough mixing, not overlooking the final work of baking, roasting, French frying or freezing.

For this is no half-hearted demonstration. Each delicious dish will be completed and shown with such realism that there are sure to be hungry "ohs" and "ahs" from the audience. If any stray husbands get into the theater, they are certain to ask: "When do we eat?"

Troubled by left-overs? Haunted by never-ending jobs? Tired of housework that seems like drudgery?

The cure: New wrinkles will smooth the brow of the weary house keeper; that is, new housekeeping wrinkles leading to economy in time, efforts and dollars.

Not only does this picture school show new dishes, styles and interesting ways to serve every-day meals and party feasts, but it demonstrates how to make intelligent use of the ingenious mechanical servants that take the guess work out of housework.

To the fun of watching an expert cook at work in a model kitchen is added the real joy of studying the practical possibilities of such full-time servants as an electric refrigerator, a smartly-styled range, and other cooking accessories and convenient laundry equipment, designed to take the gloom out of Monday.

There is nothing formal and "upstage" about this screen Cooking School. Informality, hospitality and neighborly welcome are joined in the picture, meaning that a good time will be had by all, as the saygoes.

What about recipes? Naturally every guest of The Canyon News will want to test these tantalizing cures for menu monotony. Free recipe sheets will be distributed daily. And other things will be given away—valuable gifts that will find long and useful life in many a home.

Free gifts will be given each day.

"Does your house run you? If so, why not accept The Canyon News' invitation to join the neighborly Cooking School party, starting next Wednesday.
